

Cherbourg Aboriginal Shire Council

Councillor Bronwyn Murray

Cr. Murray comes from a strong independent family of leaders, mentors, worker's and guides who have embedded learning seeds in her, since childhood.

Born and raised in Cherbourg and is a descendant from the Wakka Wakka, Takalaka and Gungalu tribes.

She completed year 12 at Murgon State High school and went on to further studies, in order to possess graduate qualifications from 3 universities and other RTO's, including Cherbourg's local Nurunderi TAFE College.

Cr. Murray is currently in the process of becoming a small business owner, previously sat on numerous boards and committees.

Her forte is working in the Mental Health and Social Welfare industries, as well as supporting youth through education and sports.

There are a few agenda items for her as a Councillor, and they are to:

- Stay on top of Council priorities
- Ensure transparency
- Ensure accountability
- Create Pathways
- Consult and engage with Government agencies to work on better solutions
- Lobby Government for what's in our best interest
- engage with community to change mindsets
- stamp out boredom by creating opportunities for all residents; in order to be involved in positive activities
- continue to work with people to achieve positive outcomes
- address priority concerns
- empower and encourage agencies to build stronger relationships and to work cohesively together to implement needed programs from effective strategies
- Educate community and lead our people to have life victories and achieve successful community outcomes.

Her vision for Cherbourg is to work towards having a well-respected, close knit, clean, beautiful home town that's healthy, sustainable and a multi-skilled community full of opportunities and positiveness.

Her passion and drive is education, due to being what she believes is the key to open the doors to opportunity, as well as working with or for her people.

Cr. Murray stands strong from her husband Patrick, daughter Keturah, close family and friendships.
